

tourist information

map location

Those who want to make the most of their free time outside the hotel have all the leisure facilities that fill the streets of Benidorm on their doorstep. During the day its beaches provide fun and enjoyable walks, and its theme parks are a highly attractive option. When the evening comes, Benidorm's internationally famed night life offers restaurants, pubs, bars and nightclubs.

It is also possible to visit the surrounding area and discover some incredibly beautiful spots inland, such as Guadalest, Las Fuentes del Algar, Confrides and the Aitana and Bernia mountain ranges. For those who prefer seaside tourism, there are plenty of pretty towns to visit, such as Altea, La Vila Joiosa, Calpe and Dénia, among others.

Thanks to modern communications Benidorm is easy to reach and its extensive network allows fast connection with the rest of the world. If travelling by car, Benidorm can be reached via the AP7 motorway and the N332 main road. If you opt for public transport, there are buses to Benidorm from all corners of Spain and abroad. Discretionary transport can also drop you at the door of the hotel. The high-speed AVE train to Alicante is another good option.

Lastly, just 40 kilometres from Benidorm is Alicante international airport, which receives daily flights from a multitude of airlines from numerous national and international locations. Buses and taxis are constantly shuttling passengers between the airport and Benidorm.

Tourist information
 ☎ +34 96 585 13 11
www.visitbenidorm.co.uk

CONGRESS

CONGRESS

CONGRESS

city&beaches Benidorm

BENIDORM

BENIDORM

BENIDORM

Benidorm

Congress City

With its privileged climate, great hotel infrastructure, extensive transport network, high-quality services, beautiful beaches, outstanding gastronomy and the unique cosmopolitan atmosphere of its streets.

The city has all kind of companies specialized in conferences and business meetings, thus ensuring the necessary technical and human support when arranging and designing these events. There is also a wide and varied choice of hospitality facilities, including event spaces that can host up to 2000 people. As well as this there is plenty to keep you entertained day and night, with lots of restaurants, cafés, amusement parks, sports facilities, shows, concerts, and the list goes on.

Benidorm offers everything you need to host a conference or professional meeting. This city has what it takes to ensure a successful event and it also offers participants a great variety of activities to enjoy in their free time, from outdoor activities to sightseeing trips in the province.

Its mild temperature and long hours of sunshine all year round mean that companies and associations can organise conferences and business events in Benidorm at any time of year, without any fear of their time being marred by bad weather.

Its hotel establishments, with more than 40,000 beds in total, which provide meeting spaces and accommodation in the same building. This means there is no need to travel, saving time and allowing attendees to rest during breaks between sessions. At the end of the day, if they wish, conference delegates can enjoy the services offered by these establishments, which are designed to leave stress behind. The possibilities include anything from playing golf to relaxing in small health resorts and spas.

Benidorm

